

Ecology Seminar Series

Free lectures addressing important ecological topics

October 22

Doug Levey, University of Florida

Do habitat corridors really work?

Hosted by Scott McWilliams, NRS

November 19

Kevin McGarigal, UMass Amherst

Metapopulations and their application to wildlife conservation: A case study of the marbled salamander in Massachusetts.

Hosted by Peter Paton, NRS
First Annual Lederman Lecture

December 3

Doug Tallamy, University of Delaware

Are non-native plants the ecological equivalents of the plants they displace?

Hosted by Lisa Tewksbury, PLS

---

Weaver Auditorium, Coastal Institute Kingston, 3:00 PM.

Graduate student pizza lunch, 12:00 PM.

Reception at the University Club following the talk.

Contact the host to schedule a meeting with the visiting scholar.